

CLASS PARENT FORM AND INFORMATION

As per the June 15, 2009 letter, the class parent is to represent their grade on the Home School Association (HSA) Board. The role of the class parent is to promote the school using various avenues of publicity; planning events with the local community and its officials; and acting as a liaison between the administration and the parents.

The maximum stay on the board is two years and one year holding a particular elective office (President, Vice- President etc.) The class parent is expected to attend the HSA meetings (4 to 5 meetings during the school year). In case of 2 class parents for a given grade – the same parent must attend all meetings.
